

NT-NL SYNOD PUBLIC WITNESS TEAM

Called to seek the well-being of all

Your voice. Your neighbor. Your vote.

A 2026 NONPARTISAN VOTING RESOURCE FOR TEXAS CONGREGATIONS

Public Witness
for peace & justice

NT-NL SYNOD • ELCA

Voting as a way of loving our neighbor

In baptism, we are called to love and serve our neighbors.

Informed participation in civic life, including voting, is one way we live that calling.

Your voice.
Your neighbor.
Your vote.

Questions for faithful discernment

?

What will promote the well-being of all?

?

How will these choices affect our most vulnerable neighbors?

?

Is the information guiding me accurate and trustworthy?

Where to find trustworthy information

BallotReady.org

Personalized ballot, candidates and voting plan

VoteTexas.gov

Official registration, polling and ID information

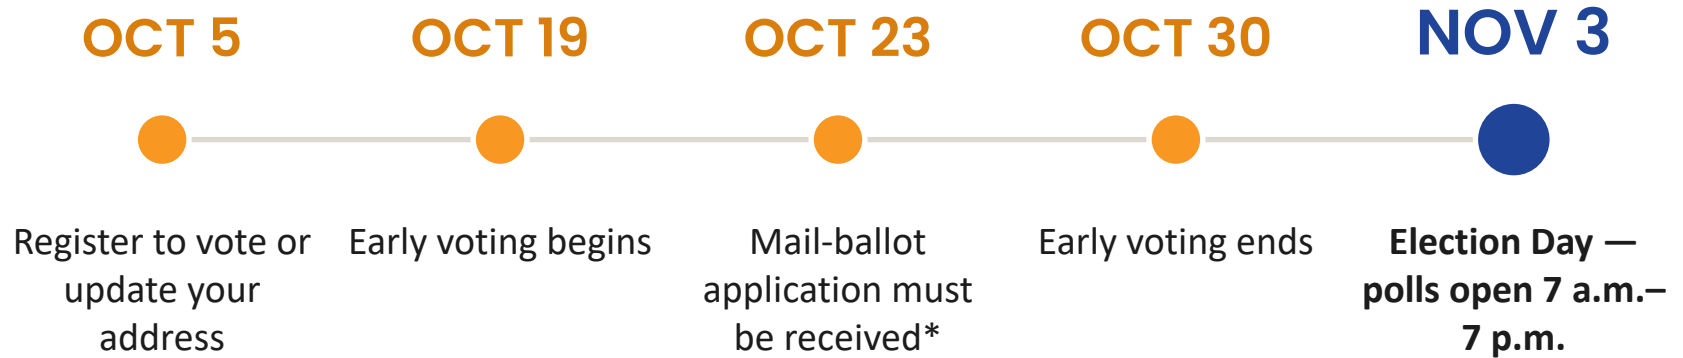

VOTE411.org

League candidate responses and voter guide

TEXAS VOTER RESOURCES

Key dates to remember

Texas vote-by-mail eligibility rules apply; see VoteTexas.gov. Election dates verified September 14, 2026.*

Prepare. Learn. Discern. Vote.

1

Check your registration and address.

2

Preview your ballot
and compare candidates.

3

Choose when and where you will vote.

PREPARE. LEARN. DISCERN. VOTE.

Your voice.
Your neighbor.
Your vote.

This resource is nonpartisan.

The ELCA and NT-NL Synod do not endorse or oppose political candidates or parties.

Faith framework: ELCA Faith and Civic Life: Seeking the Well-being of All (2025).

Election dates verified September 14, 2026. Check VoteTexas.gov for updates.

Public Witness
for peace & justice

NT-NL SYNOD • ELCA